- f. The YWCA will be sending out a flyer later this week about the upcoming Spanish language tutoring program that will be held at the YWCA throughout the month of September. The groups will be held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 8:00 am-10:00am after Labor Day. The tutoring is designed to teach frontline staff how to respond to frequently asked questions. The participants will determine what they need to learn. This tutoring program has a priority of working with staff from the DVCCRT programs. Enrollment will be limited. Generally, one tutor will be working with the group, but we will also have Spanish speaking community members work with very small breakout groups. At the conclusion of this series, all participants will receive a tutorial on CD/DVD to help them maintain their skills. It is important to commit to each session. It is a very significant time commitment, but one that we believe will help all of us. It is free. Participants should have very limited, if any, Spanish speaking (hearing) skills. The participants that may benefit the most are support staff, crisis workers, intake staff. After registration, they will be asked to determine the priorities for what they need to learn. This training is paid for through a grant from The Michigan DSH Domestic Violence Treatment Board and the Department of Migrant Services.
