

Domestic Violence Prevention Group Holds Community Kickoff

- WHO:        The Domestic Violence Community Coordinated Response Team
The DV CCRT is a multidisciplinary team of local professionals who work in the fields of domestic violence prevention, domestic violence intervention, law, education, faith and health care. The DV CCRT is committed to raising awareness about domestic violence, providing training and education, and encouraging the community to play an active role in the prevention of violence against women.
- WHAT:       DV CCRT Community Kickoff
Recognizing the power of numbers and knowing that domestic violence can't be solved by one person or one agency alone, the DV CCRT is having a community meeting. This kickoff event will inform the community of the team's current and upcoming projects and invite community members to get involved. Free copies of the updated Healing Path, which was revised and printed by the CCRT with support from the Nokomis Foundation, will be distributed.
- WHEN:       Thursday, December 16
Noon – 1:30 PM
Lunch will be provided.
- WHERE:      Kent County Courthouse
5th Floor Conference Room
180 Ottawa Ave. NW, Grand Rapids

The Domestic Violence Community Coordinated Response Team (DV CCRT) is a multidisciplinary team of local professionals who work in the fields of domestic violence prevention, domestic violence intervention, law, education, faith and health care. The team meets on the fourth Thursday of every month from 12-1:30 p.m. at the Kent County Courthouse. The DV CCRT allows for open discussion of difficult cases, problem solving to better serve victims, collaboration among agencies, and the creation of subcommittees to address community concerns and new ideas.

###